

BRIEF CURRICULUM VITAE
ROCÍO MARÍA POZO TOMÁS (2024)

1. Graduated in Dual Bachelor's in Law and Business Administration and Management, University Miguel Hernández (2022).
2. Master's Degree in International Protection of Human Rights from the University of Alcalá (2023) with extraordinary award in the academic year 2022-2023.
3. Scholarship for student collaboration in university departments in the academic year 2021 – 2022 from the Ministry of Education and Vocational Training.
4. Has taken numerous training courses of specialization in subjects related to the area of knowledge and training for teaching.
5. Currently working on her Ph.D. thesis entitled “Business and human rights. Special attention to the practice of the European Union” under the direction of Professor Elena Crespo Navarro in the framework of the Doctoral Program in Social and Legal Sciences of the University Miguel Hernández.
6. Associate Lecturer at Public International Law and International Relations Area at Miguel Hernández University since 2023, having taught and collaborated in teaching the subjects of Public International Law and European Union Law in the Degree in Law and in the Double Degree in Law and Business Administration and Management.
7. Has participated and participates in activities and projects of teaching innovation and internationalization. Among others, she participated as member of the UMH team in the V, VI and VII editions of the International Litigation Competition (ComLit), organized annually by the Universities of Alcalá (Madrid – Spain) and Militar Nueva Granada (Colombia). Also, in the PIEU – UMH project of teaching innovation “Practical workshop citizens initiative on prohibition of discrimination on grounds of sexual orientation in the European Union”, and in the PRODIC – UMH Project of internationalization at home, entitled “Facing violence against women. Youth proposals for regulation at European level”.
8. Participation as speaker in courses, seminars, and national and international congresses such as the VIII Annual Meeting on European Jurisprudence, organized by the Spanish Hub of the European Law Institute or the II Advanced Interuniversity Research Seminar on the European Union: The European Union and its values organized by the Jean Monnet Chair ReinforcEU of Miguel Hernandez University.
9. Member of the organizing committee of several congresses, conferences and seminars related to specific matters of Public International Law and European Union Law.