

BRIEF CURRICULUM VITAE

ROCÍO MARÍA POZO TOMÁS (2025)

1. Graduated in Dual Bachelor's in Law and Business Administration and Management, University Miguel Hernández (2022).
2. Master's Degree in International Protection of Human Rights from the University of Alcalá (2023) with special distinction in the 2022-2023 academic year.
3. Pre-doctoral fellow in the Programme for the Promotion of Scientific Research, Technological Development and Innovation in the Valencian Community since November 2024, previously Associate Professor in the Department of Public International Law and International Relations at Miguel Hernández University.
4. Scholarship for student collaboration in University departments for the 2021–2022 academic year from the Ministry of Education and Vocational Training (Department of Legal Science at Miguel Hernández University).
5. Ph.D. thesis in progress “Business and human rights”, under the direction of Professor Elena Crespo Navarro (Doctoral Program in Social and Legal Sciences, University Miguel Hernández).
6. Member of the research project team “Hacia un nuevo marco jurídico para las inversiones socialmente responsables y sostenibles: respuestas desde el Derecho internacional y de la Unión Europea” (Towards a New Legal Framework for Socially Responsible and Sustainable Investments: Answers from International and European Union Law) (Ref. PID2023-149020NB-I00), Spanish Ministry of Education and Science.
7. She is author of publications in collective works, focusing her research on human rights protection and European Union Law.
8. She has participated as a speaker in courses, seminars and national and international conferences such as the VIII Annual Meeting on European Case Law, organised by the Spanish Hub of the European Law Institute (2023), the II Advanced Interuniversity Seminar on Research on the European Union: The European Union and its Values (2023), and the Summer Course The European Union at your fingertips, organised by the Jean Monnet ReinforceEU Chair at the Miguel Hernández University (academic years 2023-2024 and 2024-2025); the International Conference: New Horizons for Human Rights in a Globalised World, organised by the University Institute for Research in Latin American Studies (IELAT) of the University of Alcalá, the Miguel Hernández University and the Nueva Granada Military University (Colombia) (2025); or the International Litigation Workshop, organised by the Department of Public International Law and International Relations of the Miguel Hernández University (academic years 2023-2024 and 2024-2025).

9. She has been a member of the organising committee for various conferences, workshops and seminars on specific topics related to public international law and European Union law.
10. She has taught and/or collaborated in teaching the subjects of Public International Law and European Union Law in the Bachelor's Degree in Law and the Double Degree in Law and Business Administration and Management during the academic years 2023-2024 and 2024-2025.
11. She has completed numerous training courses for university teaching (more than 120 hours).
12. She has participated and continues to participate in activities and projects related to teaching innovation and internationalisation. Among others, she participated as a member of the UMH team in the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th editions of the International Litigation Competition (ComLit), organised annually by the Universities of Alcalá (Madrid, Spain) and Militar Nueva Granada (Colombia) (since the 2021-2022 academic year). She has also participated in the PIEU-UMH teaching innovation projects “Practical workshop on citizen initiative on the prohibition of discrimination based on sexual orientation in the European Union” (2024), “Law of the sea in action: learning through gamification and film” (2024) and “Role playing: simulating interviews with experts on immigration and asylum in the European Union's area of freedom, security and justice” (2025), and in the PRODIC– UMH internationalisation at home project “Tackling violence against women. Proposals from young people for regulation at European level” (2024) and “Inter-university practical seminar: know your European citizenship rights and how to exercise them” (2025).
13. Member of the Jean Monnet Chair team at Miguel Hernández University Strengthening the European Union by reinforcing its values.
14. She has been a member of the Spanish Association of Professors of International Law and International Relations (AEPDIRI), since April 2025.